there is an unmistakable gleam in ma s eye and her absolute composure both appalls me and rips my heart from its root i burst into tears the gauntlet is thrown from the time she was conceived susan morse was her mother s special child for susan special translated into becoming her incorrigible mother s frazzled caretaker a role that

continued into adulthood now she finds herself as part of the sandwich generation responsible for a woman whose eighty five years have been single mindedly devoted to identifying the answer to everything and this week s answer looks like it may be the real thing susan s mother is becoming a nun mother brigid is opinionated and discerning don t call them trash cans they re scrap baskets feisty and dogmatic stop signs and no parking zones are installed by bureaucratic pencil pushers with nothing better to do a brilliant artist truly a saving grace and predictably unpredictable recently demonstrated by her decision to convert to orthodox christianity and join its holy order dressed in full nun regalia she might be mistaken for a taliban bigwig but just as mother brigid makes her debut at church a debilitating accident puts her in a rehab center hours from susan s home where susan s already up to her neck juggling three teenagers hot flashes a dog two cats and a husband whose work pulls him away from the family for months at a time now susan gets to find out if it s less exhausting to be at her mother s beck and call from one hundred miles away or one hundred feet and she s beginning to suspect that the things she always thought she knew about her mother were only the tip of a wonderfully singular iceberg in this fresh funny utterly irresistible memoir susan morse offers readers a look at a mother daughter relationship that is both universal and unique for anyone who s wondered how they made it through their childhood with their sanity intact for every multitasking woman coping simultaneously with parents and children for those of us who love our parents come hell or high water because we just can t help it susan morse s story is surprising reassuring and laugh out loud funny a beguiling journey of love forbearance and self discovery the habit introduces two unforgettable women you ll be glad to know from a safe distance after a brutal assault a reporter flees new york to look for her father in ireland in a tale chockful of action from a crime fiction master publishers weekly julie hayes is finally making it as a reporter with a column at the new york daily under her own byline when her husband jeff tells her he has fallen in love with another woman and wants a divorce blinded by anger and hurt she flees their chelsea apartment before the night is over she will be lying bound and gagged on the floor of a trailer the victim of a sexual assault by two masked men now a tabloid headline herself julie tries to help the police search for her assailants but she is not the same woman anymore she decides it s time to uncover her mysterious past her birth certificate lists her father as thomas francis mooney born in ireland whereabouts unknown but danger stalks julie across the atlantic where she is caught up in seething ira tensions and sees strange connections between her past and present now she has an even more urgent goal to get out of ireland alive the habit of fear is the fourth novel in dorothy salisbury davis s julie hayes mystery series which also includes a death in the life scarlet night and lullaby of murder as well as the stories the puppet and justina in the collection in the still of the night there s no better way to explain the miracle of israel than to examine the life of stef wertheimer a story to be read by everyone warren buffett forced to flee nazi germany with his family at age ten stef wertheimer came to british palestine in the late 1930s he promptly dropped out of school learned a trade through apprenticeship and played a meaningful role in israel's war of independence he also started a company iscar that began in a shed and ultimately made him one of the world's great self-made industrialists in the habit of labor wertheimer shares the lessons he learned from a life of hardship and struggle in one of the world's newest industrial powers both a pragmatist and a visionary wertheimer has devoted much of his life to promoting jewish and arab economic development through innovative educational and vocational programs along with the establishment of a series of thriving industrial parks in israel and in turkey the future of israel he believes is not in military might or diplomatic alliances but in its growing economic clout
